

MERCY CORNER

June 19, 2015

The Pharisees saw this and said to His disciples, “Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?” He heard this and said, “Those who are well do not need a physician, but the sick do. Go and learn the meaning of the words, ‘I desire mercy, not sacrifice.’ I did not come to call the righteous but sinner.” Matthew 9:11-13

God, who is merciful, desires our mercy. Following are some ways to practice mercy during this Jubilee Year. Try to randomly select one act each week and put it into practice.

1. If someone you know seems to lack faith, share some of yours—tell him or her how Christ has changed your life.
2. Pay the parking or toll fee for the person behind you.
3. Give the much-maligned Pope Benedict XVI a fair reading sometime. You’ll be surprised.
